REVOLUTIONIZING FIRE, LIFE
AND ELECTRICAL SAFETY

JOIN OUR SPECIAL 2-DAY C&E SESSION

Spotlight on Public Education

Sunday, June 4 8:00am-11:30am | Monday, June 5 8:00am – 5:00pm

Fire and life safety education is important for every community, but dealing with diverse groups of people, in multiple settings, with varying circumstances can be extremely challenging. This special 2-day session addresses many of these issues, while giving you access to other valuable C&E experiences. Register by April 30th and save $30.

Highlights include:

- Six dynamic educational sessions
 - Clutter Suppression
 - Building a Network to Support Community Risk Reduction
 - Motivating Behavior and Attitude Change
 - Cultural Competence
 - Reaching People Who are Deaf or hard of Hearing
 - Understanding Your Audience
- A live chat with NFPA public education staff and other educators
- A seat at General Session
- Full access to the Exhibit Hall
- Networking opportunities, including a Sunday evening reception

Don't miss this opportunity to sharpen your skills and pick up tips and techniques from the world's top source of fire, life and electrical safety knowledge and education.
